

"My understanding is that LPFM is being considered for various areas and that it might affect national radio services, and I wanted to make sure you were aware of the great service K-Love radio provides to the Raleigh/Durham area. K-Love provides a positive and encouraging influence to my family, friends, and my entire community that cannot be replaced with local radio.